

Langley-Adams Library Museum Pass Policy

Langley-Adams Library offers a variety of museum passes to the public. Funding comes from a variety of sources, including The Friends of the Groveland Library, The Board of Library Trustees, and more.

All library card holders within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts may borrow a museum pass. If patron does not reside within the Merrimack Valley Library Consortium (MVLC) area, the patron must register their own library card with MVLC. Please see the Library Card Eligibility Policy and the Borrower's Agreement for more information.

Many of the passes are coupon passes in digital or paper form, and do not need to be returned. Passes that must be returned should be returned by 10am the day after use. This allows the library staff to provide the pass to a patron the next day.
